

John Davidson, M.D.

Medical Director, TLC Camarillo

John Davidson, M.D. is dedicated to laser vision correction, corneal, cataract and intraocular lens surgery. He has performed over 13,000 sight restoring surgeries, and is board certified by the American Board of Ophthalmology.

Dr. Davidson earned his Medical Doctorate with Highest Distinction (top 1%) from Indiana University in Indianapolis, Indiana, after earning Bachelor of Arts degrees in Biology and Chemistry from Indiana University in Bloomington, also with Highest Distinction (top 1%). He completed a Residency in Ophthalmology at Indiana University in Indianapolis and was awarded a Fellowship in Pediatric Ophthalmology and Strabismus at the prestigious Jules Stein Institute at UCLA.

He has continued to train, teach and lecture earning the prestigious Physician Recognition Award from the American Medical Association for over 1600 hours of continuing medical education (CME) he has completed. He is an Assistant Clinical Professor of Ophthalmology at the Jules Stein Institute at UCLA. He has also published articles in the American Journal of Ophthalmology, and Journal of Pediatric Ophthalmology and Strabismus.

When Dr. Davidson is not working he is a volunteer physician for SEE International and participates in eye surgery missions to developing countries. He has provided modern eye care to hundreds of people, and trained local ophthalmologists in Albania, Mexico and Venezuela.

John Davidson, M.D.

Biography

EDUCATION & PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

Fellowship in Pediatric Ophthalmology and Strabismus, 1991-1992, Jules Stein Eye Institute, Los Angeles, California

Residency in Ophthalmology, 1988-1991, Indiana University, Indianapolis, IN

Internship, 1987-1988, Methodist Hospital, Indianapolis, IN

Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Society, 1986-1987, Indiana University, Indianapolis, IN

Doctor of Medicine, Highest Distinction, 1983-1987, Indiana University, Indianapolis, IN

Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society, 1983, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN

Bachelor of Arts, Biology, Highest Distinction, 1979-1983, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN

Bachelor of Arts, Chemistry, Highest Distinction, 1979-1983, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN

BOARD CERTIFICATION

National Board of Medical Examiners, 1988

Diplomate American Board of Ophthalmology, 1994, 2004

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

American Society of Cataract and Refractive Surgery

Diplomate American Academy of Ophthalmology, 1994, 2004

American Association for Pediatric Ophthalmology & Strabismus

California Academy of Eye Physicians and Surgeons

Ventura County Ophthalmology Society

Surgical Eye Expeditions International

HONORS & AWARDS

Jules Stein Eye Institute Clinical Fellow Research Award, UCLA, 1992

Alcon Speakers' Bureau

Allergan Speakers' Bureau

Listed in "America's Top Ophthalmologists," 2007, 2008

Bausch & Lomb Speaker's Bureau

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

Assistant Clinical Professor of Ophthalmology, Department of Ophthalmology, Jules Stein Eye Institute, UCLA School of Medicine

Clinical Instructor, Ventura County Medical Center Family Practice Residency, UCLA School of Medicine

Clinical Investigator for Allergan & Alcon